Starlettes High Kick Thugs

Danya Salinas

I started crying, I was scared I wasn’t going to get it back because I had my solo and duet the next day; I was devastated”

This past Friday, Starlettes traveled to Moody Gardens in Galveston for the National Dance Competition. They arrived just in time for their dinner reservations at Rainforest Cafe.

After dinner they noticed that some of their stuff had been moved and then they realized they had been robbed. After having to dig through dumpsters to find their stuff, the Starlettes showed “remarkable courage” during their unexpected ordeal.

“When we got back on the bus, we noticed that our stuff was gone, and we started freaking out, we had to call all of our moms to see if they took the stuff off the bus,” freshmen Heather Bridges said.

After arriving at the hotel, the team looked through their belongings. Almost everyone on the team was missing something, Purses, I.Ds’, cash, iPods and the costumes they were going to wear to the competition that was just hours away.

“I started crying, I was scared I wasn’t going to get it back because I had my solo and duet the next day; I was devastated,” Bridges said.

Ms. Kloes called the police to let them know what was going on. Hours later she received a call from the officer working on the case. Galveston P.D. had arrested the primary suspect of the robbery and allowed Gretchen Kloes, Kloes sister, and two parents to search the suspects’ house and reclaim the rest of the missing items.

“Normally, all of our belongings would have been taken down as evidence and who knows when we would have seen them again, but because they knew how important this competition was, they were able to get us all of our stuff back that night,” Kloes said.

After a stressful Friday night, and getting barely any sleep, the Starlettes weren’t sure they could compete in the morning, but they kept their positive attitudes and came out as National Champions in Team Production.

The Starlettes will be hosting a Spring Show on April 17-18 at 7:00pm in the auditorium.

Before spring break the Caney Creek cheer coaches held tryouts to find the next 2015/2016 cheerleaders and mascots.

Baldemar Esquivel has been Petey for 2 years, next year will be his last. He is very dedicated to what he does for the squad.

“I would describe being a mascot as silly,” Esquivel said.

For Kaley Gollnisch, next year will be her first year as mascot.

“I wanted to be mascot next year so I could be down on the football field watching the plays closer,” junior Goll-nisch said.

To be a mascot it is not about just putting on a suit and cheering with the squad, they do more meaningful things than that.

“I cheer for my team and also we go and take pictures with kids, meet and greet with people, try and pump up spirits,” Esquivel said.

Blair Bennet will be the only sophomore on the varsity squad next year.

“I am excited about being on varsity next year because I get to cheer at Friday night lights and show my spirit,” freshman Bennett said.

For some of the cheerleaders next year will be their last time cheering for Caney Creek.

“I will be sad because I was getting to know everybody and all the seniors this year are graduating,” junior Isaiah Saldivar said.

Congratulations to all the new cheerleaders, for making next year’s squad and to all the cheerleaders that already know how to spread Panther Pride!

Go Panthers!

Boys On The Side

The annual powderpuff game has been scheduled for April 20 and everyone is encouraged to participate. In the game the girls play football while the boys cheer the girls on.

“It is a lot of fun! We are very competitive and we like to win!” past participant and senior Gissela Ruiz said.

To play in the game or be a cheerleader, all you have to do is visit Mrs. Quibodeaux in room 4109 or see Mrs. Garrett, Mrs. Lewallen, Ms. Merchant, Mrs. Ward, or Mrs. VanVossen to get a permission form with rules and requirements.

“The players/cheerleaders are only required to attend one of the practices before the 20th,” Powderpuff sponsor Doreen B. Quibodeaux said.

The game will start at 5pm but there will be plenty to do before and during the game as several school organizations will be running dunking booths, having cakewalks, selling food, taking Glamour shots, and even having a costume contest! And of course it is a great way to become involved.

“It is a good way to show that your class is way better than the others and a good way to have school spirit!!” senior Kimberly Jackson said.

Tickets for $3 will be sold during all lunches or $5 at the event. T-Shirts can be bought for $12 by visiting Mrs. Greenmyer in the front office.

Girls Lift Themselves to State

Brandon Skero

When you think of a weightlifter you think of big, muscular men, like The Rock, but that is not the case. Two of our girls made it all the way to the state meet on March 21 by lifting over 700lbs. each.

Sophomore Breanne Haesche finished 6th in her weight class and set her personal best total weight of 735lbs. This was her second State appearance after having also made it last year. Junior Kaley Gollnisch finished 13th in her weight class and also set her personal best at 905lbs.

“I feel pretty good about how I did considering some of the girls I went against,” Gollnisch said.

Along with the girls, the Creek also had three boys earn their chance to compete in their State Meet on March 28.

Senior Alex Holsinger lifted a total weight of 1365lbs. and finished 14th in his class. Senior Logan Phillips achieved a total weight of 1490lbs. placing him 7th. Junior Chase Kellar finished with a total of 1615lbs. placing 15th and was happy with his results after taking the year off last year.

“I felt like I could do it this year and I ended up making it all the way to State,” Kellar said.

This year both groups grew and improved with the help of Coach Garza and he’s someone they credit a lot of their success.

“Coach Garza really helped me a lot this year,” Gollnisch said.

To a normal person to hear how much weight a powerlifter can lift it can be a bit of a shock.

“People are baffled by how much weight I lift at such a young age,” Kellar said.

If you see anyone mentioned make sure to congratulate them on their great year!
